

CCAP: Cross-Cultural Awareness Programme Volunteer Recruitment Guide for 2022

CCAP is organized by Korean National Federation of UNESCO Clubs and Associations(KNFUCA) with support from the Ministry of Education since 1998. It is a program to enhance the level of intercultural understanding among youth in Korea. 1 CEV and 1 KIV pair up to visit elementary to high school to introduce CEV's motherland culture. Apply NOW to be a volunteer for CCAP! Please refer to the website(ccap.or.kr) for more details. [*CEV: Cultural Exchange Volunteers KIV: Korean Interpretation Volunteers]

Areas of Recruitment

(2 areas)

1	2
CEV: Cultural Exchange Volunteers	KIV: Korean Interpretation Volunteers
Non-Koreans who plan to stay in Korea for at least 6months from now	Koreans who can interpret English or any other 2 nd language to Korean

We are looking for a person who can

▼	▼	▼	▼	▼	▼
Participate in orientation and interview	Manage schedule for volunteer work	Communicate and cooperate with others	Prepare for the class carefully	Understand and consider students	Handle the job professionally

Schedule

Application	Submit Online Application before September 12th(Monday.) (Must submit before deadline)
Self-Interview (5~10min long)	After submission of application, the guideline for Self-Interview Video will be provided via email. Ater receiving the guideline, the video must be sent within 2~3 days. (ccap506@naver.com)
Announcement	Result will be announced personally within a day or two, after receiving your video.
Orientation (OT)	OT via ZOOM or via phone call, after coordinating the schedule together. (MUST ATTEND)

How to Apply

Go to the website(ccap.or.kr) >> Click on "Join" >> Apply(either CEV or KIV)

Do's and Don'ts

- After submitting the application, you need to send self-interview video.
- The guideline for self-interview will be provided after the submission of the application via email.
- If you don't attend the orientation, you cannot participate this program.
- To do CCAP, you must be available to participate at least 2~3times a month. Class dates are affected by school schedule.

Contact Information

Yunji KIM / Coordinator of CCAP – KNFUCA (010-8810-8681, ccap506@naver.com, ccap.or.kr)

